Who was Alexey Gubkun?

Why was A.S.Gubkin a great person?

Why did he start tea trade?

He was a merchant.

Where did he live?

What rewards did Gubkin get?

He sent his tea to Siberia and China to sell everything. He discovered the best tea sorts, prices and ways of transportation. His motto was "The best product, at a low price, anytime, anywhere".

He established the "Elizabethan Poor Children's Charity House" in Kungur, built a three-story stone house where the daughters of poor parents received primary education, upbringing and work skills. When they got married, they were given 100 rubles as a dowry.

When tea manufacture goods fell but tea prices rose and he took advantage of it.

He regulated prices for different sorts of tea and began to weigh much tea as people wanted.

He appreciated the merits of A.S.Gubkin and he was awarded the rank of a full state counselor and the Order of Vladimir III degree.

He created the largest company in Russia selling tea at an affordable price to all categories of buyers. He also helped poor people to get education/
